Dear Dan:

Attached are copies 1 of 5, 2 of 5 and 3 of 5 of COR-0621, Amendment No. 9 to Contract AF 33-(600)37230.

As discussed between yourself and we have executed this amendment subject to correction of the following typographical errors and omissions. We would appreciate your making these corrections by hand, initialling same, and returning copy number 3 to us.

25X1

In the first paragraph, subparagraph c, the locational accuracy objective should be ± 1 mile. In subparagraph f, the dispersion of x should be ± 200 nautical miles, and of y should be ± 75 nautical miles or less.

The introductory sentence of the fourth paragraph should read:

"The following shall be provided by the Government and shall not be developed or supplied under this contract."

Your usual prompt action in returning our copy of this amendment will be appreciated.

Very truly yours,

25X1
